Fluctuating trends are confusing the taxpayer

By WOODY JOHANNES
I-G Staff Writer

ALBANY — Contending with the current taxation trends in which bills go up as tax rates go down, and assessments rise as exemptions fall, property owners are being jostled into a fiscal fury.

That fury isn't confined to big investors, either. The small home-owners, in fact, are becoming the greatest protesters, particularly since many of them feel they are being required to carry an unfair share of the tax burden.

The situation has become particularly acute in Albany, where skyrocketing real estate is exerting upward pressure on the as-essment rolls. Actually the area's tax hikes are running behind inflation figures. But to the local resident who has to write larger and larger checks each year, those figures are academic economics, not financial salvation.

For what the economics are worth, the combined Albany-Alameda tax rate this year dropped to $13.885, a cut of 2.45 percent over the preceding year, making it the second lowest of four major communities in northern Alameda County.

Lowest on the tax pool were the City of Alameda with $13.515. And for Alameda that represented an increase of 19.3 cents or 1.43 percent over last year.

Berkeley this year slashed 5.8 percent off its tax rate but still remained the highest of the four cities with a city-county total of $15.779.

Taxes in Oakland dropped 2.37 percent, to leave the rate at $14.723 for the current year, approximately 84 cents over the Albany rate.

"Our people are paying more taxes," Ellen Zapata, Albany city treasurer, admitted today, "but the bulk of this increase must be attributed to the incredible inflation rate the nation is experiencing."

"Inflation is not the only factor in our expanded assessment rolls, however. Several major construction projects during the past several years have greatly increased the base values."

"A case in point is the Gateway Apartment complex on Pierce, just east of the freeway. I don't have a definite figure on Gateway, but I'd put its assessed value, very roughly, in the neighborhood of $5 million. That project, alone, would account for nearly one-third of the assessment increase during the past four years, if the estimate is correct."

Albany assessments from fiscal 1973-74 were $34,556,304. In '74-75 the figure went to $36,471,197, rose to $41,740,835 in '75-76, and this year hit an all-time high of $49,194,897.

A nation-wide slowdown in home construction, during the past two years, and the rate of inflation during the '70s is continuing to exert heavy pressure on home-prices, however, and the trend "probably will persist for some time," according to some government statistics.

Witnesses testifying recently at a Senate Banking Committee hearing on a bill designed to reduce mortgage payments, took a grim view of the situation. "The American dream of universal home ownership is virtually dead in the present economic and institutional environment," Kenneth Rosen, Princeton University economist said.

"The institution of home ownership has, over the past few years, become available only to the fortunate few," he added, predicting that the median price for a new home will reach nearly $90,000 — double the current cost — by 1986. The average down payment would be "approximately $23,000."

And taxes, if they do not lag behind the market, will double too.

Rosen's predictions assume a continuation of the current trend in which home prices increase faster than the over-all inflation rate.

Treasurer Zapata was somewhat more optimistic yesterday.

"I believe the present rate of rise will slow, and probably level off to a certain extent, despite inflationary pressures," she predicted. "But tax assessments must, of course, keep up with the market price."

Councilmen campaign for Human Relations Board

ALBANY — Either Vice Mayor Pat Griffin or Councilman Robert Luoma will speak in favor of the proposed Albany Human Relations Commission next Tuesday night during a meeting of the Albany school board.

The personal appeal will be a response to the school board's recent decision "not to participate" by suggested appointment of two persons to the 12-member commission "...due to the limited amount of information made available."

The Albany City Council Monday night discussed the school board's reaction, deciding that a council member and City Administrator James Turner should attend the future board meeting.

Griffin and Luoma were members of the council committee which worked on the project. Turner had recommended that the local commission follow the pattern used in the City of San Luis Obispo.

The commission would investigate "human relations violations" and propose new human relations programs.

The city council earlier voted 3-1 to have City Attorney Larry Saler draw up an ordinance creating the commission. Dissenter was Councilman Lewis Howell.

But Griffin emphasized that the final form will not be known until Saler submits the proposed ordinance and the city council votes on it.

Saler was told the commission should have 12 members, with two members appointed by each council member and two members appointed by the school board.

Administrator Turner

noted that the school board has already received much information about the proposed commission, including the San Luis Obispo ordinance and other correspondence.

In other business, the council: —Scheduled an April 18 work session before a regular council meeting for consideration of how to spend an anticipated $141,000 in federal revenue sharing money. About $70,000 of the total is informally committed to the Middle School Park. A public hearing was held last night, with citizen Darion Meniketti suggesting spending funds for senior citizens' housing, Santa Fe right of way acquisition and park projects. —Was assured that the city zoning laws will be brought into conformance with the General Plan after Planning Commission Sam Dows urged haste, adding that this project has been "side-tracked" by other council undertakings.

—Scheduled an April 18 public hearing on an appeal by John and Maria Balon against a Planning and Zoning Commission action approving the design of a proposed home at 861 Hillside Avenue, as planned by Lloyd Rucker. A motion by Councilman Howell to immediately uphold the Commission approval failed on a 2-2 council vote, with Griffin voting no and Gleason abstaining.

—Scheduled for next Monday consideration of MEMORIAL SERVICES — Civic leaders, friends and business associates jammed into Northminster Church, Friday, to pay their last respects to Joseph and Martha Jeans. The Albany realtors were killed when a Transatlantic jet on which they were passengers collided with a second plane on a runway in the Canary Islands. An overflow crowd stood outside the doors of the church at 545 Ashbury, El Cerrito, as the afternoon service was conducted. Mr. and Mrs. Jeans had operated the Jeans Realty Company at 1484 Solano Ave.

Duncan Neill dies in his 102nd year

ALBANY — He didn't retire until he was 84. "And Duncan Neill did so then, only because he wanted more time to devote to civic and social activities," Fred Woodward, an old friend, said yesterday. "That kept him busy for another 15-16 years."

Neill died in a Richmond convalescent home just 101 years and five months after his birth in Arborath, Scotland on October 24, 1875.

"He was trained as a machinist in Scotland," Woodward said, and on engines and hulls he was the best."

Neill left Scotland somewhere around the turn of the century, and settled in Quincy, Massachusetts, working there until he moved to Albany in 1922.

"That's when I met Duncan — nearly 50 years ago. He was working for the Old Dominion shipyard then. He did a lot of ship repair work and specialized in salvage operations. Hand-on superintendent — a fellow named Price — said Duncan could handle any job, and the yards at that time were handling some million dollar salvage operations."

"Duncan kept on there

'till he was 84, and kept up with his lodge work and other activities, too. Belonged to a lot of things. He was a member of the Albany Lodge 686, F. and A.M., and the Rural Lodge of Scotland, the Richmond Lawn Bowling Club, the St. Andrews Society of Oakland, and I don't know what else!"

Neill is survived by two daughters, Alice S. Dohrmann of Hayward; and Ethel E. Camera of Albany, with whom he made his home; and "a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren."

He died March 25. Services were conducted March 29 in the Ellis-Olson Mortuary by the Rev. Palmer Watson, pastor of the MacArthur Baptist Church, and Albany Lodge Number 686 F. and A.M. He was buried in Sunset View Cemetery.

"We'll all miss him," Woodward mused. "He was always on the go. On his ninety-ninth birthday he celebrated by singing some of those lively old Scotch ballads. And he wanted to sing 'em again, on his hundredth birthday, but that time we couldn't find anybody who could accompany him on the piano."

Some of the scheduled workshops will deal with: teaching spelling, vocabulary building, prescriptive / diagnostic teaching, the use of tests in the Secondary Reading Program, U.S.S.R. Scrabble, after quietly holding its own as a conventional pastime for several years, suddenly appears to be bidding for craze status. The Albany Scrabble Players Club—fifth such organization to blossom in California in recent months—will stage its first tournament April 17 at St. Alban's Church.

"This is an open club, all persons of any age over 18 are invited to play each Sunday afternoon," according to Isabelle Betten who, with Alice Wentworth, will direct the Albany operation.

Each competitor is asked to furnish only two items, a scrabble board and three egg timers. The better gadgets should make the welkin ring as the game of words is joined.

"Games will be played under national rules, with Funk and Wagnalls 1973 edition of the dictionary being the prevailing reference," Mrs. Betten revealed. That choice may leave Webster's wordless. But Webster must bow to decisions handed down by the Scrabble Crossword Game Players, Inc., a New York firm which licenses local club directors, including Mrs. Betten.

"Scrabble players may join the Association for a fee of $5 per year, and receive a bi-monthly publication from the national organization," the Albany director said, adding: "They also will be eligible to play in all tournaments everywhere, and receive black points for each winning game."

The scope of play in California is limited, at the moment, to five sanctioned clubs—San Jose, Sacramento, Pasadena, Lompoc, and, as of April 17, Albany.

Game time here is 1 p.m.

Paul D. Robinson, son of Mrs. R. L. Robinson of 401 Stannage, was one of the 828 named to the Rice University President's Honor Roll for the first semester of the academic year. "This scholastic achievement," Rice President Norman Hackerman said, "becomes a part of each student's permanent record."

Retraining program for displaced homemakers

OAKLAND — An experimental job training program for older women is the first in the nation to be announced by the Displaced Homemakers Center in Oakland and Kelly Girl Service, Inc.

The project was designed especially for "displaced homemakers"—women who are "displaced" from their lifetime roles as homemakers for their families when they are suddenly widowed or divorced and in need of a paid job to be self-supporting.

Considered unemployable by most placement agencies because of their age, their lack of recent work experience and their rusty or outmoded skills or education, these women suffer the additional handicap of feeling they are "over the hill" and "worthless." The unique Kelly Girl — Displaced Homemakers Center project will provide intensive job readiness training at the Center with updating of business skills to be developed on-the-job in temporary employment situations carefully selected by Kelly Girl Services.

For the older woman who has been out of the job market for 20 or 30 years while raising a family, this new project offers a chance to re-enter the business world at a gradual pace as well as the opportunity to gain validated work experience and build self-confidence.

Readers wishing more information about this project may contact the Displaced Homemakers Center which is located on the campus of Mills College in Oakland at Seminary Avenue and MacArthur Blvd. The telephone is 632-3205.

Hillel Academy sets Founders' Day Dinner

OAKLAND — Hillel Academy, the only Jewish Day School in the East Bay, will hold its annual Founders' Day Dinner at the Sidney Snow Auditorium in Knowland Park on May 19. Opening the festivities will be a formal reception at 6 p.m. followed by a catered dinner at 7 p.m.

This year's banquet will honor as "Man of the Year" Marshall Cornblum, campaign chairman of the Jewish Welfare Federation from 1974-76. As guest speaker the school has secured Rabbi Saul Berman, Dean of Stern College of Yeshiva University in New York City.

General chairman of the dinner is Joseph Zatkun,

Peralta's vice-chancellor, Dr. Clement Long, to retire

"I shall continue to care," Dr. Clement A. Long, vice chancellor of Peralta Community College, assured his colleagues, Monday, as he announced plans to retire July 15.

And in a letter to Peralta Chancellor Thomas Fryer, Jr., the veteran administrative officer noted that: "As a member of the Peralta family I have enjoyed my professional relationships with trustees, administrators, faculty, classified staff and other Peralta-associated members."

Chancellor Fryer said that he had accepted Dr. Long's decision to retire with regret, and said that he would personally miss the counsel and assistance of the Vice Chancellor. "His cooperation was invaluable to me when I came to the District in 1973," Fryer said. "He was one of those persons on whom I could depend in becoming sensitive to the history and concerns of Peralta. We will miss him greatly."

Dr. Long played a major role in converting Laney Trade-Technical Institute and Merritt School of Business into campuses of the Oakland Junior College (later, Oakland City College) in the early 1950's. These became comprehensive colleges forming the nucleus of what is now Peralta, formed in 1964.

He was Interim Chancellor-Superintendent of the Peralta District from 1971 until 1973, and had previously served as acting chancellor for a brief time. His title, when Peralta was formed, was Assistant Superintendent-Business.

Previously, as president of Oakland City College, a part of the Oakland Unified School District, Dr. Long was president of Merritt and past president of the Jewish Welfare Federation. Zatkun has appointed a number of members of the community to serve on his committee.

Hillel Academy has an annual budget in excess of $100,000. Tuition covers about 70% of this budget. The rest must be raised from private and community sources. It provides Jewish and secular education.

Recently a number of children of Russian immigrants have joined the school on full scholarship.

The Founders' Day Dinner is the major fundraising event of the year upon which the school depends for its continued successful operation.

Dear Sir: I am a writer. My latest book, I-Boat Captain, the story of Japan's submarines at war, will be the June selection of Literary Guild's military book club.

I have been asked to do a book on the Japanese-Americans who served in the Pacific during World War II. (Far more than the much-publicized number who fought in Europe, by the way). Until recently the unbelievably-valuable work these Nisei did has been buried deep in the Pentagon's classified files. It's a story that should be told, if only to give us "Anglos" and "Haoles" an idea of what it is like to really love and serve your country. I'm delighted to be writing it.

Among your readers are many Nisei. I would appreciate hearing from those who served in the Pacific in WWII, as well as from anyone who knew any of these men.

Thank you.

Albany Bowl

Ray Felix widens lead for O and R

By PHIL ALSTON
Ray Felix gave O & R Vending a little breathing room at the top of the standing in the 915 Major League at Albany Bowl last week by firing 247 game and 658 series in the course of a 19 to 6 win over Associated Coin Amusements. His other games were 193 and 218.

In shooting his best game and series of the season, Felix helped the Venders achieve a 16 1/2 point advantage over second place Full House, which continued to struggle in a 20 to 5 loss to Solano Club.

Al Ochoa did what he could to keep Full House in contention with 222-616, but it wasn't enough in the face of Mike Linck's 248-638. Art Lane's 612 set for another.

Both the third and fourth place teams closed at Full House, Third Place Merry Jax dropped 14-11 behind Dick Wickman's 607, and New Tahoe Tours made their Wayne Peterson's 641 in a 16 1/2 to 8 1/2 over McCue Printing.

Ralph Butler's opening game of 244 and series of 16 BCL Superstars 1849 Smith Enterprises, Steve Brewer posted Gordon Libby 634 as the Card Club smashed the Bowling Supply 18 to 7.

Associated Coin Amusements, leading the standings in the Major League, repulsed the challenge of Post Newspaper 12-10 but could gain ground on second place Urban Alternatives, tripped Wigwagium by same margin.

Dorothy Cotton's 58 Post Newspapers was league's best performance of the night, just two better than Jan Lamb 556 for Diablo Bowling, 18-4 winners over Cats.

Dave Duarte topped scoring in the 870 Social League and his series was a major factor DeAngelo Delicatessen to 1 win over Park Meats, pulling the Del within one-half game leading Bald Eagles.

Other good tallies in Commercial were for Niemi's 246-611 for Offset Printing and Blaylock's 600 for B&B Enterprises.

Tom Sha led the Pin Invitations with 620. Manberto pitched 616 Wednesday 660 Classic. Rich Briseno paced the Club with 600.

Albany, Salesian nines win

Local prep nines had mixed success Friday. In league contests, Albany topped San Leandro, 5-2; Salesian nipped Moreau, 4-1, and St. Mary's was topped by Bishop O'Dowd, 5-3.

Albany received a good pitching performance from Mark Klaver, who went six and one-third innings to record the win. He allowed San Leandro just three hits, but issued eight bases on balls.

The Pirates jumped out to a two-run lead in the top of the first inning. But the Cougars countered immediately, picking up two in the bottom of the frame. Paul Ybarra connected on his first of three singles to lead off the inning. John Davis then walked. John Davis rapped a single to score Ybarra and Luty crossed the plate when the Pirates erred on the play. The Cougars won the game in the fifth when they added two more runs. Kenney Torres singled. Greg Westphal tripled him home and scored on a Luty single. They added one more run in the sixth on an error, an Andrei Wallace sacrifice and an RBI single by Ybarra.

Albany improved its ACAL record to 3-1, good enough for a second place tie with San Leandro behind 4-0 Pacific. Salesian's winning run came in the sixth inning when, with the score 7-5, pitcher Zane Clutts doubled and Jerome Paolini doubled him home.

Moreau came back with seventh. The Chieftains drew first single runs in the sixth and blood, scoring one in the first on singles by Bob Robinson, Carl Glover and Steve Morales and a walk to Paolini.

They picked up three more runs in both the third and fifth innings. Walks figured predominantly in those rallies.

In the third, the Chieftains were the recipients of four bases on balls. In addition, Clutts stole home for the second run and Paolini stole third and scored on an overthrow for the third.

They scored on three walks, a hit batsman and an RBI single by Bud Longmire in the fifth.

Salesian's CAL record is now 4-2 and the team is tied for second with De La Salle behind 5-1 Bishop O'Dowd.

St. Mary's led early against O'Dowd when it came up with two runs in the third inning to take a 2-1 lead.

Willis Turner singled and Ron Woods and Harry Lipnoski followed with walks. Tom Pearse hit into a fielder's choice in which all hands were safe and Turner came into score. An error on an Andy Odisio grounder allowed the second run to score.

The Dragons picked up three runs in the fourth and an additional one in the fifth to take an insurmountable lead.

St. Mary's scored once in the final inning on walks to Ken Gardner and Rich Jyrinki and an RBI single by Woods.

Cougar track team outpaces Salesian

ALBANY — The Albany High Track Team continued to improve with a victory against Salesian and Oakland Tech March 29 at Salesian High School.

The Cougars scored 60 points to Oakland Tech 56 and Salesian 46 in what coach Joe Cruz considered a "mild upset." Albany was a late addition to the Salesian-Tech meet when the Cougars were forced to postpone their own competition against Harry Ells the previous week due to rain.

"This meet was very important to us," emphasized Cruz whose team will open the ACAL season against talent loaded Encinal tomorrow at Cougar Field. "We're still evaluating our athletes and we need to know their best events before the season starts."

Once again seniors Tim Wright and Robert Zoro led the way. Tim lowered his time in the 100 to 10 flat and Zoro won the 440 and the 880 in very windy conditions. Albany picked up valuable points in the distances where John "Rocky" Stal-lone and Jeff Armstrong swept the mile and the two mile.

The Cougars were greatly strengthened with the addition of sprinter - long jumper Rob Wilson who returned to Albany from Arizona. With Wilson running the second leg the 440 relay improved its time by more than two seconds. Rob also had a 10.2 100, good for fourth place.

Albany, JFK, Berkeley softball women win

With seven returning starters and encouraged by an opening win, the Albany High School girls' softball team is looking forward to its April 12 home opener against Piedmont at Cougar Field.

Albany, which was scheduled to visit San Leandro today, opened its ACAL schedule at Alameda with a 1-1 victory after being rained out of its only pre-season game.

Coach Virginia Behm's returning starters are pitcher Katia Malinovsky, catcher-infielder Alice Doi, infielders Helen Clark, June DeLong and Nancy Kato, outfielder-first sacker Joeey Nelsen and outfielders Anita Bishop and Judy Thomson. Newcomer Shelley Caras drove in three runs with three hits in the victory at Alameda Tuesday.

Malinovsky pitched the victory, getting excellent support from the defensive play of Thomson in left field.

In Richmond-Berkeley Athletic League action, Kennedy stopped Harry Ells 14-7 Tuesday to run its record to 3-0 in league and 5-0 overall. Lori Thomas was the winning pitcher with a four-hitter, along with going for four-for-four at the plate—including a triple.

De Ette Dawson was three-for-four for the Eagles while Loretta Fox was a perfect three-for-three.

$3,000 construction fund sought by Little League

ALBANY — Approximately $3,000 must be raised by the Albany Little League this season.

Funds are needed for construction of a dugout, announcer's booth, scoreboard and the league's portion of the refreshment booth to be built at Memorial Park.

League President Bill Lewis said today that all labor will be donated by members of local service clubs, league volunteers and other interested Little League fans.

Most of the construction will be at the baseball diamonds located in University Village.

Albany residents and Little League boosters are urged to donate any amount. A $15 donor will become a co-sponsor of a player and receive a sponsor's certificate.

The mailing address is Albany Little League, Inc., P.O. Box 6003, Albany, Calif. 94706.

Heat's still going up. Insulate.

The cost of heating a house is still going up. Hot air rises, too. That's why the attic is often where most home heat is lost. And your attic may be insulated, but inadequately, without your even knowing it. Insulating an attic to R-19, the recommended standard, can save up to 25% of your heat. And you'll be more comfortable.

In a typical California house it should cost about $300 to $400 if you get a qualified contractor to do it. Less if you do it yourself.

So send for our free insulation booklet. It tells you how to check whether your insulation is adequate, and if not, what to do.

PG&E wants to help you save energy and keep your bills from going out of sight.

"The pay wasn't the only reason I had for joining the Naval Reserve, but I've got to admit that monthly check comes in mighty handy. Especially in this day and age."

Good pay. It's a good reason to join the Naval Reserve. But it's only one way of making your experience count.

When you join the Naval Reserve, you'll also get the satisfaction that comes from doing an important job. And doing it well. If you left active duty with a critical rating, we'll try to get you back in the Reserve and working in that same rating. You'll do the job you were trained to do, with an opportunity to do it even better.

Life insurance is another extra. Just $3.41 a month buys $20,000 worth of insurance. You can't beat that price anywhere!

But there's more. You'll again be eligible for... As well as... spent in the Reserve... retirement pension...

So what's the catch? You have to work one weekend a month, plus two weeks during the year on active duty.

But if you think you can spare the time, you owe it to yourself to find out more. Just call or visit the Naval Reserve unit nearest you. And find out what your monthly check will be.

Rules for job

ALBANY — City officials are turning away many applicants for new, federally-funded city jobs simply because they are not local residents.

"We urge people to be aware of the federal requirements which are very exact," said City Administrator James Turner.

"The new jobs must be filled by people living within the city. We have told many applicants from other cities and counties to look for similar CETA programs in their own areas," he said.

Turner said there are other requirements, including low-income status.

'Dreams' program

BERKELEY — The Blue Chalk Dance Theater will present "Dreams and Improvisations" on the "Open Theater Series" at the Live Oak Theater, 1301 Shattuck Ave. on Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. Admission is by donation.

Would a sidewalk float?

A sidewalk won't float, but this concrete canoe does, as proven here in a practice run at the Berkeley aquatic park yesterday. It will also float, hopefully, this Saturday when the four UC-Berkeley students aboard try to power their way to first place in the annual concrete canoe contest, to be held at San Luis Obispo. The four, from left, Dave Harder, Dan Pomeroy, Bill Johnson and Jon Keyak, all majors in civil engineering, will test the boat's design against 11 other entries.

'War Cry on a Prayer Feather' Symphony auction theme

The theme for the Oakland Symphony Guild Auction Gala '77 to be held April 30 Jack London Square will center around Maestro Harold Farberman's musical composition "War Cry on a Prayer Feather" to be premiered at the Paramount in April. Silver invitations for the black-tie optional event feature his musical score.

Dinner table centerpieces of white Phalaenopsis orchid plants placed in black top hats and musical-themed black and white taffeta bows with silver sequin feta bows will be placed on large copies of his musical composition. At each place setting will be a scroll done in calligraphy of the Taos Indian poetry tied in silver. Auction donations include a German violin and bow valued at $2,250 given by Dr. Jason E. Farber; a Dutch painting (ca. 1770) valued at $1,000 donated by Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Fahrenbach; an original pencil rendering of tennis star Ilie Nastase by Richard Mota; a white mink and leather handbag and mink wallet donated by Mrs. Theodore K. Lee and English Riding Lessons donated by the Oakland Riding Academy. Other gifts include a week at the Vernon Tudor vacation home in Palm Springs;

All donors will be feted at a "Thank-you" party, chaired by Mrs. Clifford Anderson, to be held April 14 at the Sequoyah Country Club. Prospective donors may call 339-1634 (Mrs. David Quan, auction chairman). Reservations for the auction may be made with Mrs. Marvin Grove.
